The Witching Hour

In folklore, the witching hour or devil's hour is a time of night associated with supernatural events. Witches, demons and ghosts are thought to appear and to be at their most powerful. Black magic is thought to be most effective at this time. In the Western Christian tradition, the hour between 3 and 4 a.m. was considered a period of peak supernatural activity, due to the absence of prayers in the canonical hours during this period.

The Witching Hour is the time of day when humanity has the potential to become more aware of the activity happening beyond the veil, in the spiritual realm. While the name implies it's a specific hour.... It's actually the period of time between the end of the night, and the beginning of a new day. It's the liminal space between night and day when the veil is especially thin, sometime between 2:00 AM and 4:00 AM local time.
